Wind-stable up to 100 km/h!

Its solid design makes Big Ben extra robust! To prove this, the professional parasol was tested by structural engineers in a wind tunnel, in which the 3 x 3 m version can withstand even strong winds of up to 100 km/h!

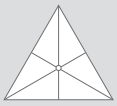

Telescopic system

The advantage: the telescopic system extends the pole when closing! Tables and patio furniture can stay where they are.

BIG BEN optional extras

Radiant heater

Enjoy your favourite outdoor spaces even on cool days with the integrated radiant heaters for Big Ben. Perfectly suited for long evenings - in the food service industry, but also in a private garden. The wiring runs directly in the frame, invisible and well-protected. The detachable radiant heaters are simply plugged into the connections at the strut ends.

Lights and heating can be switched on and off individually using the central switch at the top of the pole. Optionally, the infrared radiant heater with Ultra Low Glare technology can also be comfortable operated via app, using Bluetooth.

Hint: order your parasol with pre-equipped wiring. Retrofitting is no longer possible. This way you can remain flexible. We will be happy to advise you on all possibilities regarding weather protection.

Elegance - Integrated strut light

With the integrated Elegance LED strut light, you can make any patio shine! Designed to be elegant and unobtrusive, the modern LED strips provide pleasant light. The lights are easily switched on and off via the central switch on the pole or via remote control. The latter also allows you to dim the lights. Also available with coloured LED light strips.

The light strips can be attached to the underside of the struts just as on the top side for indirect lighting.

Solid Ash

Solid Ash with Sawn Finish

Ash Veneered

Ash Table Tops

We use Ash for almost all of our table tops. UK manufactured, we chose Ash due to its attractive natural grain and its overall stability. Each top is made to order so can be any shape, size and finished in any standard wood colour - see Pg TT13 for a selection of our popular wood stains. Ash veneer offers a cheaper alternative to solid ash and the 'sawn' finish is a rustic option.

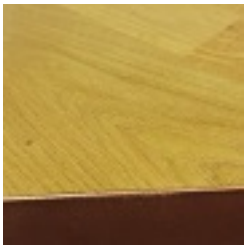

The tops are 25mm thickness as standard but these can be made with either thicker timber sections or with built down edges to create the look of a thicker top.

There is a choice of edge profiles including the popular chamfered edge giving the look of a sleek slim line top.

As standard, and unless specified, we use an Acid Catalyst Clear Lacquer with a 20% sheen. This gives a tough matt finish which complies with BS6250. If a higher sheen / shine is required we can use a higher percentage lacquer if requested.

Selection of Edge Profiles
Although the vast majority of tops we produce have the standard square edge, we are able to offer a number of different edge profiles for the solid ash tabletops. The 47 Degree Edge (or Under Chamfered Edge) has become very popular as it gives an impression of a thinner, more compact table top.

Complete Tables

As well as being able to mix and match table tops and table bases, we offer a number of ‘complete tables’, the majority of which are UK manufactured. We cover classic, traditional and contemporary styles and designs with our various ranges.

The table frames, as with most in the market, are predominantly manufactured in solid beech but our tops are mainly manufactured in solid ash – although the choice is yours! We also use real wood veneers, laminates and other solid woods.

We offer a choice of central pedestal, ideal when space is at a premium, four leg and slab end. With our in-house spray shop we can stain and polish the tables to any finish to meet our customers’ requirements.

- Most tables UK manufactured in any shape or size
